

History of the Vermont Police Canine Association

The Vermont Police Canine Association (VPCA) is a non-profit organization whose primary purpose is to assist with the development of certified Police Canine Teams by supporting the teams with additional training, training aids, and special needs assistance. The ultimate goal is to enhance the high quality of service currently provided by certified Police Canine Teams to the citizens and visitors of the State of Vermont. We currently have approximately 40 members from Vermont, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, and Quebec.

Camp Dudley @ Kiniya
Colchester, VT
Open to the Public

VPCA Iron Dog Challenge

September 27, 2008

Registration: 7:30 - 8:30 a.m.

Race Begins at: 9:30 a.m.

Location: Camp Dudley @ Kiniya

There will be several points along the trail for friends and family to watch.

It is a friendly competition with the primary course totaling 1.5 miles and involves paintball shooting, maneuvering through various obstacles, evidence recovery, a water crossing and more. The course is designed to simulate real life scenarios where the K-9's and their handlers are deployed. There is also a 100 yard dash to test the speed of the dogs without their handlers.

There will be a BBQ lunch provided (donations accepted).

Requirements: The team must be able to complete the whole course. The dog must be able to follow basic obedience commands, both on and off leash. Teams must be physically fit enough to compete in the event.

Registration fee: $25

Please make checks payable to: VPCA
Includes a t-shirt (specify size)
